Operation "Panther"

Briefing notes 28h before the assault on Zama

Considering its speed, hunting down a panther needs to be done in numbers. The hunters close down on the animal by blocking its escape route and tightening their formation.

It's a funnel straight to death.

A hunter awaits the animal at the bottom of the formation to deliver the final strike.

The lion Cub (the target) is an Aurionic who uses the Kaaro Aargudan fighting style (he can also lightly use fire). His strength is based on his agility and his speed. He's also supposed to be able to make multiple astral translations in a row.

He has a powerful gear but is not supposed to be able to use his ancestral spear to fight yet. Or else this could be dangerous.

We know thanks to the Rhino that the lion cub has a very good perception of space and a lot of honour he will surely try to force the way to reach the palace.

We also know that the specific distance of the target's astral translation (dash) is around 4 Meter long.

We will use it to push him onto our spears.
